Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence to host 5th Annual Wine, Women and Shoes® this Saturday, October 26

WHAT:

The Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence's (ICADV) 5th annual Wine, Women and Shoes event is set for this Saturday, October 26, 2019, at The Meadows Events & Conference Center in Altoona from 6-9:30 p.m.

Guests at this year's event will enjoy local and national wines, a VIP shopping experience with five local boutiques, exclusive raffles, live and silent auction, seated dinner and high-energy fashion show. One hundred percent of proceeds raised go towards programming, services and solutions for victims of intimate partner violence. The event is also an opportunity for ICADV's staff and Board of Directors to highlight the tireless work that they are doing each and everyday to prevent domestic violence from impacting one more Iowan.

WHEN/WHERE:

The Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence's 5th annual Wine, Women and Shoes event set for Saturday, Oct. 26, 2019, from 6-9:30 p.m. at The Meadows Events & Conference Center in Altoona.

WHY:

Since 1985, ICADV has been driven by their mission to engage all people in a movement to change the systems, attitudes and beliefs that perpetuate violence. Wine, Women and Shoes is the perfect opportunity for the Coalition's friends, advocates and community leaders to come together to show their support stand for victims of domestic violence.

About the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence

The Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence (ICADV) is a statewide social justice organization responding to the needs of battered women, men children and communities in Iowa. The Coalition provides training, counseling, legal services, community outreach, state level advocacy, program management and consultation, and support to 21 victim service providers across the state who provide direct service to survivors and communities impacted by domestic violence. Last year, ICADV's network of service providers served more than 40,000 survivors and their families. For more information, visit www.icadv.org.
