

Domestic Violence Advocate
Crisis Intervention Service, Mason City

Crisis Intervention Service is looking for an energetic individual to join our domestic abuse team. If you are committed to social change work, have a passion for helping others, and want to work in a progressive non-profit, then we have the job for you!

Crisis Intervention Service is hiring a Domestic Abuse Advocate responsible for providing crisis response and healing supports to children, teens, and adults impacted by domestic abuse in Butler, Franklin, Grundy and Hardin counties. This position will also have an opportunity to help reduce and prevent violence by facilitating community education and prevention programming. The Domestic Abuse Advocate will be on-call every third week to respond to crisis situations throughout the four-county area.

Crisis Intervention Service offers a flexible work environment, great benefits, and a $15.68/hour starting wage.

At Crisis Intervention Service, we don't just accept difference – we celebrate it, support it, and thrive on it for the benefit of our community. CIS is proud to be an equal opportunity workplace and is an affirmative action organization.

If this sounds like your dream job, please send a letter of interest and/or resume to CIS@CIShelps.org.
